

A top-down view of various baking ingredients on a dark, rustic wooden surface. In the top left, there is a partially unwrapped bar of dark chocolate and several cinnamon sticks. A pile of white flour is in the upper left, with a small wooden scoop resting on it. In the bottom left, there are several brown eggs, some whole and one cracked open in a small white bowl. A wooden rolling pin lies horizontally at the bottom center. The word 'Bridges' is written in a large, elegant white cursive script across the middle of the image.
